From the South

- Leave the M6 at Junction 36 - signposted A591 South Lakes. Follow this route (by-passing Kendal) past Windermere and on towards Ambleside (approx 11 miles).
- Turn left at the traffic lights on to the A593, signposted Coniston, follow the road round by the lake, then turn left at the rugby ground and left again over a narrow bridge (signposted Langdale, Hawkshead & Coniston), continue on the A593 for approx 3 miles.
- At the Skelwith Bridge Hotel, turn right on to the B5343, signposted Langdale. Continue for approx 2 miles, go over a cattle grid, and continue straight on (ignoring the left turns to Eiterwater), the main entrance of the Langdale Estate is a short distance ahead, on the left, turn in over the cattle grid.

From the North

- Leave the M6 at Junction 40, and take the A66 towards Keswick.
- Turn left via the B5322 on to the A591, past Grasmere and on to Ambleside.
- Follow the one-way system through Ambleside, turn down the slip road on the right just before the traffic lights, on to the A593 alongside the lake.
- Follow the road round, then turn left at the rugby ground and left again over the narrow bridge (signposted Langdale, Hawkshead and Coniston), continue on the A593 for approx 3 miles.
- Follow directions from point 3 above.

By Rail

- Intercity trains (3 hrs 20 mins from London Euston) stop at Oxenholme (Kendal) with regular connections to Windermere Station. Langdale is a 15 min taxi ride.

By Air

- The Langdale Estate is less than 2 hrs drive from Manchester International Airport, via the M56 and M6.
